JOINT MOTION FOR SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

The parties, Steamatic of Nashville & Middle Tennessee, Comcast, Inc., and XO Communications, Inc. hereby move the Court to refer the parties to a judicial settlement conference. Because of the amount in controversy, it would not benefit any party to undertake the expense and uncertainty of a trial. Nevertheless, to date the parties have been unable to settle this dispute themselves. The Court's August 4, 2014 Order (Doc. 43) provides that the parties may file a motion requesting a judicial settlement conference if they believe such a conference would be helpful. The parties do believe such a conference would be helpful, and they respectfully request that the Court grant this motion.
